“ Linda’s soft giggle and hmmm echoes in my ears. One time as a child I carried a huge watermelon into her kitchen and out it in the table excitedly. It rolled off and cracked open all over her floor. She giggled and didn’t make me feel bad. It was so heavy for a child. I had trouble finding foods to eat at school so she made these homemade cinnamon rolls and granola I loved it! She would even entice me with it smiling. Linda taught me how to gut a chicken and laughed at us competing to butcher them. My favorite was her rice crispy bars with M&M or chocolate chips in those days. Linda’s cat collection was also so fun for our kids to visit. Going to Sherman Lake and playing cards were also amongst my favorites. Best of all we’re the kids she gave us to make friends with over the years that are still so precious to our family. I am so grateful for them in our lives.

And I am also grateful for the friendship she provided for my mom. The many telephone conversations of joy and chats to fill the time in good friendship, card parties and gatherings are cherished memories. We love Linda so much and the memories she gave to all of us, especially our mother who feels the void of her dear friend. Thank you Lord for giving us Linda for her time on earth and take care of her so we can hang out again. Gina
