“ I met Lisa through being neighbors to her sister, Lori. We would get together frequently and the 3 of us would sing karaoke and laugh for hours. It wasn't long after that, Lisa took a job as a store photographer and had to travel. It didn't last too long though because Lisa loved the kids just not standing making funny faces and weird noises all day to quiet bawling kids. My sincere sympathy to you Lori, you've had such a rough time, and to all of the family. I'm still in shock from her passing.

“Gone too soon. Remember you and Lori as tiny babies and watched you both grow to adulthood. Our paths crossed at unexpected times. Prayers for comfort for Jan, Lori, Jalisa and Ronnie and all others that knew and loved Lisa.

“I will miss you. My life changed the day we met. I'm thankful for the time we had together!! All the laughs and dumb things we would do!! The love you showed to those around you can never be replaced. Rest easy my precious friend. May God be with Nancy, Lori, Ronnie, Jay, your momma and your entire family. Rest in paradise! Until we meet again. I love you!!

Lisa and I worked together for many years at Dawson County Corrections on the same shift. We spent many holidays together and she loved her family dearly. I will always have a special place in my heart for her and May she rest in peace.
