Services will be livestreamed at www.kearneyefree/live Horner Lieske McBride & Kuhl Funeral and Cremation Services of Kearney is in charge of arrangements.

Lois was born August 30, 1948 to Emil & Bertha (Schwab) Kreutzer of Riverdale, NE. Lois grew up in Riverdale with her 3 sisters and 4 brothers, and graduated from Amherst High School. In 1966, Lois married Roger Lee of Amherst, NE. They were married for 43 years when Roger passed away. They were blessed with two daughters, Faith and Nina. Lois lived in Riverdale until 2019 when she moved to Kearney.

She was the kindest, soft-hearted, godly woman you could meet. She was a member of the Kearney E-Free Church. She loved serving the Lord by being a prayer warrior, an Awana Cubbies leader, part of the kitchen team for large church dinners, and doing life with her Life Group. She enjoyed cooking for her family, reading, and watching reruns of Gunsmoke. Anytime her grandkids wanted to do something, Lois was up for it. Manicure or pedicure with her granddaughters or playing video games with her grandson. Lois loved her family.

After staying home with her daughters during their elementary years, Lois spent time working part-time as a church secretary and for Follett's Campus Bookstore.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Emil & Bertha; her husband, Roger; her daughter, Faith Hueftle; brothers, Alan Kreutzer, Larry Kreutzer, Sonny Kreutzer, and Bobby Kreutzer; sister, Luella Wuehler.

Survivors include her daughter, Nina Valleau (Tim) of Kearney, NE; granddaughters, Tiffany Stoiber (Josh) of Kearney, NE and Lynette Tebbe (Anthony) of Lincoln, NE; grandson, Max Hueftle of St Paul, NE; great-granddaughter, Laurel Tebbe of Lincoln, NE; sisters, Twila Bosshamer of Amherst, NE and Marilyn Bailey of Lexington, NE.
