“ We met at Wendy's restaurant several years ago. It was quite a moment..as if I had known her my life long, not like someone I just met! It was Jesus between us. I will miss Jean's frequent presence. Not sure how she could handle the one wounded hip and leg, what with such a love for dance. That activity she never spoke of to me. But we talked about all sorts of things. I'll never forget how worry was absent in her when she fell and had a stroke which she recovered from in flying colors. This resiliency makes me wonder if I should have been born on a farm. :) Rest in peace friend. Blessings to her family which will miss her.

“ Jean and I spent many hours together going to and from singles dances.

We laughed about some of the dumbest things.

The memory of Jean will last forever in our hearts.

Please accept our sympathy at this time.

Friends forever.

“ My deepest Sympathy to the entire family on the passing of `Jean`. I never knew her (I am the youngest in my family) but my family often spoke of her when speaking about DeLoss and family. DeLoss, Jean's father, was a favorite cousin of my father, Virgil Wilke. I believe that Dad received inspiration to train a beautiful Palamino pony because of his relationship with DeLoss. But Dad must have had a special place in his heart for a dear young girl named Jean, as well. May her soul be in Glory!

“ Jean was one of the first ladies that I met when I moved to Kearney 20 years ago. She came into my work place and we just clicked. We shared many thoughts and we comforted each other. She started a barn dance once a month and my husband and I were the band. She loved to dance. Jean glowed with her love and boldness for Jesus. Till we meet again Jean....Love, Marcie May
