Mark P. Jacobsen was born on March 31, 1953 in Kearney to Paul and Evelyn (Parks) Jacobsen. He attended school in Minden, graduating with the class of 1971. After graduation he attended electronic school in Omaha and fell in love with this field. On May 28, 1977 he married Deborah Davis in Omaha. In the Spring of 1980, he founded D&M Security Inc. He cherished his customers, treated them with respect, and appreciated every one of them. He attended Spirit of Life Church. Mark had a servant's heart and was willing to help someone in any manner that he could. He loved using his servant's heart in many ministry opportunities. He was an Awana Leader, Royal Rangers Leader, was a sound tech at church for many years, cooked breakfast for a men's bible study group he attended and filled in wherever he could. As his physical capabilities declined and he could no longer physically serve, he was a faithful intercessor in prayer. His faith never wavered.

Joshua (Alli) Jacobsen; grandchildren Lance, Mark, Courtney and Natalie Heun, Hannah Jacobsen, Christian and Lane Jacobsen, Parker and Garrett Jacobsen; and a sister Wilma Von Seggren.
