“ I was so honored to get to know Marlys several years ago. She lived in our neighborhood and we got to know her when my daughter sold Girl Scout cookies. She only lived a couple of blocks away from us at the time and we were always delighted to have a conversation with her. I will never forget her kindness, friendliness, and genuinely bright smile she had. She was truly a lovely lady with a gift of making everyone feel welcome at her home. There was a lot to learn from her by her just simply being kind. After she moved and as my daughter grew more and became involved in other activities we lost touch with Marlys. I had never forgotten her and thought of her often. I'm sure I always will.
