“ I was fortunate enough to attend school in Minden with Mary. Later we both went to Kearney State College. We continued to be friends and tried every summer to gather with other MHS friends. Always laughing and gently speaking kindly of others. I will miss her comforting spirit and delightful bubbly personality. Rest in peace my friend.

“ Mary was a very special aunt and a joy to be around. She taught me how to play cards and always brought joy to family gatherings. My father Gary loved her very much and liked spending time with her when he could. I am saddened and shocked to hear about her passing. My prayers and thoughts are with Jim and the family.
