““Great grandma Jan” as everyone called her, was an incredibly welcoming woman to me, from day one. She had a warm smile and nothing but the kind words for me and Clayton, and she was stood steadfastly in her support for us, and everyone else she cared about.

From what I know, she enjoyed family get-togethers, eating good food, listening to warm-hearted stories about better times and remembered friends, and the smell of freshly cut flowers.

She loved laughing at a really good joke, scratching a grateful dog's belly, and exchanging the greatest-biggest hugs when saying "hello" and "goodbye."

She wasn't one to complain much, that I remember. She bought in bulk. She didn't believe in wasting anything, and appreciated the sensibility and versatility of a nice pantsuit.

Looking back, she really appreciated all the important things in life. We could all learn a thing or two from her. She will be sorely missed.

“ A very fond memory of Jan many years ago when we were their next door neighbors that I continue to use today. There was a time when I mentioned that I had to do something, and Jan was quick to respond, Garry, you don't HAVE to do it, you GET to! Praise Him!

“ I am very saddened to learn of Jan's passing. My condolences go out to her entire family. I have known her my entire life & she was a special lady. She was also a dear friend to my own Mother for many decades, even sharing an anniversary date (July 7th) with my parents. She will be missed.
