“ Nicole, Charles, and Ken,

Our hearts break with yours over the loss of Michelle. When I received the call it brought back many memories of Michelle. Memories of haircuts in retirement homes, beauty salons, and even your home. Memories of youth trips where she would keep me focused and awake as we hauled junior high or high school students all over. Memories of the way she fought to finish her education and achieve her goals in nursing. Memories of crying together, praying together and laughing together. I am thankful for those memories and will cling to them as I think of her life.

I pray you will always remember Michelle for who she was and not for the battles she may have had.

May you all find peace today as you celebrate her fun, adventurous, and caring life.

Love you all,

Jeff, Angie Thompson
