“ Praying for comfort for the Patsios family today. There are so many memories of working with Nick at the restaurant . Sis and I always were happy when the family came and helped at the restaurant. Also the time Nick took us to the drag races. Fun times. Thinking of you all today. 🤗❤️🙏 Deni&Dottie the other "twins".

Thinking of you all during this time. Brad would be so sad if he were here, he thought so much of your family. I pray for you all. Stay close with sad days ahead of you.

“ Many memories. Nick always treated our kids with kindness - and his passion for the muscle cars gave our oldest son a way to communicate and develop a skill in auto detailing. We will miss our friend, Nick. Until we meet again...

“ My deepest sympathies to my dearest cousins, Joanie, Mickey, Nancy, Stephanie and John. So many memories flood my mind as I think of you. Your house behind Bicos and the huge yard and all the cousins playing together. Your house on the hill, spending time with all of you, reading books in the library there. Jaison, your German shepherd. How beautiful you all were, Nick and Mick and John so handsome, Joanie, Nancy and Steffie so beautiful. So sad when you all moved to Vegas. Waiting tables at Nick's Fine Foods, enjoying his cooking. Aunt Betty always smiling. Nick and Mick toddling across Grandma and Grandpas floor with their cute little toddler legs
Fireworks and family gatherings. I love all of you and my prayers are with you. It seems like I am more of an aunt than cousin, since Suzie and I were always watching you younger children

“ I will always remember Nick and the Bee. From when I was a small child until now as I am nearing 20, Nick always remembered to call or send a card on my birthday, and he was a great blessing to my family and I. I have fond memories of going to the drag races with him and hearing stories of his racing days. Nick, we all love you and will miss you.

“ When I was about 5 years old, I fell at school & got stitches. So on a Saturday night when my parents went out to eat & Nick & Nick were babysitting, I had a plastic rain cap mom gave me & I accidentally tore the strap to tie with. Nick took me aside, got mom's sewing kit & comforted me & gave my cap stitches, just like me. 💕
