Nora was born February 13, 1906, to Leonard and Anna (Runnels) Webb in Stiener, Pawnee County, Nebraska. She was the eldest of six siblings and lived in a sod house in the sand hills of Nebraska until the family moved to Kearney, NE in the early 1910's. She graduated from Kearney High School and married John H. Krueger on December 24, 1930, in Kansas. She had a son, Charles Oliver, in September of 1937 but also raised her brother, Richard's, daughter, Lela Webb, when Lela's mother died in childbirth. Nora lived in the Nebraska area until moving to New Prague, MN, in 2001. She was noted for her enthusiasm and fierce independence.

Nora is survived by her special niece, Lela Rust of Lincoln, IL; grandchildren,

Cindy (Jim) Beno of NE, Vicky (Andrew) Hanson of NE, Randy of NE, John (Cara) Krueger of MN, Lisa Roseland of MN; brother, Dean Webb of Billings, MT; 6 great-grandchildren; 2 great-great-grandchildren.
