“ I love you all and want to say Pam was loved by all of our family and was a kind and gentle soul. She was smart and a worker one could depend on. She was an excellent mother to Ty and wife to Stewart. Her family was important to her and she loved and was kind to all my family. She was a loyal fan of Ty and the KCHS chorus and marching band. She was a proud mother and soccer fan. It was fun to go to the soccer games when she was there and I always wanted to sit where she was. She helped Ty be the caring person he is. She was a ray of sunshine, a quote from my granddaughter. The Lord will welcome her dear soul into heaven!

“ So many wonderful memories. I came to know Pam through her sister Michele (my college roommate) I gained not only 1 dear friend but 2 plus an "extended family" I will miss her dearly. Hugs and prayers to Stewart, Ty and the Theis family in their time of loss. May God keep you. My heart  breaks for you.
