“ This great man taught me to finish concrete, fish and had great stories during all the early morning pickup rides to the job. He also taught me to take a joke and laugh at myself. Paul was a great friend to my dad and the whole family. I will forever be Leroy to Paul. Rest in peace, my friend. Enjoy the joy and comfort of being with Jesus and may he bring peace to your family.

My condolences to your family in the loss and passing of Paul . So very blessed to have known your family members in the past . As a young person i worked with Your grandfather Alfonso in housekeeping at the hospital in North Platte. Later in years Porfiria was a dear friend to me. What a dear family to me and blessed to have known them ...May you have days of comfort ahead as you grieve Pauls absence.
