Paul D. Jorgensen was born on January 25, 1956 in Kearney, NE to Dwaine and Betty Jorgensen. He graduated from Kearney High School in 1974. Paul married Robyn Reed in 1976, and they shared three children: Joshua, Maribeth and William. Paul lived in Kearney, NE his entire life and worked at Eaton for 40+ years.

Paul had a passion for rebuilding cars and began exploring his mechanical curiosity at a young age in his father's shop. That passion continued throughout his life and he loved to tinker in his shop, teaching his children the same skills. He rebuilt his son Joshua's first car with him (some of those reading this might remember this car). Another love for Paul was sports. He loved watching, coaching and playing sports with his children and grandchildren. Paul spent hours in the backyard throwing pitches or passes to Joshua and William, and playing basketball in the driveway with Maribeth. Paul was the definition of hard work. One of his guiding purposes in life was to work extremely hard to ensure his children would prosper and experience a life greater than his own. As many of you have messaged to his children and family, Paul was a blessing and known for his kindness. His gentle presence, acceptance of others, giving heart, encouragement toward others and smiling face made him the man we all knew. The family appreciates that others felt the same way about him as they did. We are all better for knowing him, and his passing leaves a hole in our lives.

Paul is survived by his son, Joshua (Amie) Jorgensen of Kearney, NE; daughter Maribeth (Jennifer) Jorgensen of Huntsville, TX; son William Jorgensen of Kearney, NE; brother Sam (Diane) Jorgensen of Omaha, NE; mother Betty Jorgensen of Kearney, NE; grandchildren, Spencer, Chandler, Estelle, and Finnegan Jorgensen of Kearney, NE; niece Mandy (Justin) Queen and her children of Ashland, NE; niece, Abby (Jake) Glair and her children of Omaha, NE; as well as many important and cherished friends.

Paul was preceded in death by his father, Dwaine Jorgensen.

“ I worked with Paul for many years at Eaton. Someone shared about his kind and gentle spirit and that is how I remember him. He would do more listening than talking but he was genuinely interested in whomever he was talking to. I remember many conversations about his children and sporting activities especially about his daughter and basketball. RIP my friend and may God welcome you into his forever kingdom of Heaven.

“ Paul and I met watching our sons play 8th grade football and continued to watch and cheer for them throughout their high school years. We were thrilled the boys became best friends and still are. My heart aches for Josh, Betty, Sam and all the friends and relatives whose lives Paul touched. I certainly agree with the words, “Paul was a blessing and known for his kindness!” Ken Mumm

“ I remember cousin Paul coming to the family farm and helping plant Christmas trees. Or shooting pool in the basement of his dad's house back when I was a kid. But the most memorable thing I remember about Paul, 😊 was he always rocked that mustache. Many wonderful times were had with him at the farm. Blessed be
