“ My family and I moved to Kearney from California in 1974. I was always nervous about starting a new school in a new town. 1 Period was Band, where I would be playing trumpet. Seated next to me was another trumpet player, Randy Kahle. Right off, we had two things in common. Our first names, and we played the trumpet. Later, I learned that Randy drove a 1965 Chevrolet Impala. So did I! Randy impressed me as a quiet, laid-back sort of guy. Later, after graduating high school, we shared interests in popular music. The last time I saw Randy was during the very early 80s, not long after he started working at Eaton's. He was still a quiet, laid-back sort of guy, and I expect he was probably that same guy later in life. Peace to Randy's family who will no doubt miss him. Rest in peace Randy.
