He graduated from Ravenna High School. Raymond enlisted in the United States Navy and served with honor as a Naval Carrier Pilot. He married Rita Lewandowski on April 12, 1947 in Lincoln, NE. He later attended Business School and located in Kearney as an Accountant for the Nebraska Public Power District. Raymond was member of St. James Catholic Church, the Knights of Columbus and Kearney V.F.W. Post 759. A skilled woodworker and mechanic, Ray was always willing to lend a neighborly hand on projects for church, friends and family. Never idle in retirement, Ray spent many hours at auctions and in his shop pursuing his passion for finding and restoring antique clocks. He also enjoyed farming, the outdoors and tending to his lawn and rose gardens. Ray was much loved and respected by family and friends. He touched the lives of many and we feel honored to have shared time with him.
