“ Riley was our neighbor who lived across the street. He'd always be sitting on his porch and waving at us when we were working on our yard. I'll miss him calling me up and asking about the family or just making sure we were all right. Or asking us to bring the kids over for Halloween so he could give them his special treat he had for them. Or he would also call us up and tell us he had a Christmas present for our family and we would exchanged many Christmas gifts throughout the years, we will miss that call. Riley you were a wonderful friend and neighbor and we will miss you. God bless you.

“ Riley was a friend to everyone he met. He truly will be missed by those of us who were lucky enough to visit with him frequently. May his memory be eternal.

Riley was kind, generous, and thoughtful to all. He never failed to bring a card to all of us at Christmas and sometimes even a gift. I will miss seeing him and regret not knowing that he was ill

If only everyone could be as genuinely kind as Riley, the world would be a much better place. You will be missed, my friend.
