“ According to my dad and my grandfather, Bob was one of the first people to see me after I was born~. My dad was bringing me home from the hospital in South Dakota in a shoebox on the floor of his car..... pulled him over specifically to see “that new beautiful baby girl “
Bob (and Rose) always treated us like one of their own. Many memories were made across that field.
You will be missed by many.

What a good fellow..He and my father-in-law were such good friends. He was a loving friend to my children and a generous help mate to my husband and sister-in-law. He and Rose shared many a dance at the Role Club and many more cups of coffee at Daylight donut. He comforted us when we !most Ray and Fran . He made the world a better place and we are poorer for his loss. I hope he and Grandad are sharing a heavenly space.
