They lived in Kearney, where Robyn worked at Head Start and the public library. Robyn later married Kern Heaton in 2004. Robyn found peace and joy especially in the last few years of her life. Despite being diagnosed with cancer, she remained sober until the day she passed away and was even given an honorary three year sobriety chip. She had a strong faith and truly believed in the serenity prayer. Robyn dearly loved her family and friends and had a wonderful spirit that left an impact on all she knew. “ I meet Robyn when she arrived at SM 8 years ago I was appointed her big sister. Robyn had an awesome sense of humor and a strength that will remain as an example!e to both women with cancer and women in sobriety. She is truly missed here in Omaha by both the sober community and the SM Alumni. Fly with your head held high Robyn!
