Rodney George Weeth was born May 16, 1938 to Elmer and Helen (Mowinkel) Weeth at Gretna, Nebraska. He graduated from Gretna High School in 1955. He married his high school sweetheart, Margaret Ann Taylor on June 16, 1956, and to this union Scott Louis and Joan Marie were born.

Rodney served in many capacities in his time here. He was a loved and ornery husband and father with a soft spot for grandkids and Scottish Terriers. He was a great friend to many and an expert conversationalist. He served on the Pappio-Creek NRD for many years, was on the Gretna School Board, the Nebraska Cattlemen's Association, the Zoning Board in Frontier County, and more recently the president of the Lavista at Lighthouse Point Condo Association in Kearney. With his son he built cattle and hog feeding operations in Gretna, until moving west to Moorefield in 1992 with dreams of a larger cattle feeding operation there, which he then doubled in later years.

He is survived by: his wife Margaret (Taylor) Weeth, son Scott (Ellana) Weeth, son-in-law Dennis (Denise) True, brother-in-law Bill (Joyce) Heger, sister-in-law Judy (Larry) Klabunde, granddaughters Trisha Weeth, Adrienne Widick, Christina (Jason) Rayburn, and Kendra (Shawn) Bonini, grandsons Cory Weeth and Jared True, eleven great grandchildren and one on the way, and three great-great grandchildren.
