“ We spent many summer vacations at the ranch playing with the Brandt cousins. It was fun to be around Uncle Roger, because he was happy and funny. There was never a dull moment with games, thistle adventures, picnics swimming, and town visits. We were honored to help celebrate his 91st birthday, and he was still his upbeat and funny as ever. He will be greatly missed, but we cherish the fond memories. Our thoughts are with all of the Brandt family at this sad time. Lisa
