Sasha Conrad, a 1995 graduate of Kearney High School. She was a kind, intelligent and talented person who enjoyed creative writing, knitting (often making gifts for others) and many friendships. Sasha attended UNK immediately after high school with a history major. After her decision several years later to major in journalism rather than history, she had her birth name of Fuehrer legally changed to Conrad, that of her paternal grandmother, since it seemed more fitting for a journalist. Sasha continued her education until her health prohibited her from doing so. Despite this, she kept a positive attitude with a full intention of finishing her degree.

During her time at home, she made many friendships with people online, including some from France, Italy and Spain. She always had a project in the wings and saw each day as a new opportunity. Sasha's faith in Our Father was strong and unending. Her purpose as a Christian was to live her life each day as one who would please God.

We will miss her greatly; however, we feel blessed to have had years with her filled with joy and love.

Sasha is survived by her mother, Linda Fuehrer; grandmother, Elaine Curren; aunt, Dee Fuehrer; and cousins Scott (McCall) Worster and family.

She was preceded in death by her father, Gerald Fuehrer; grandparents, Laurie and Eddie Fuehrer; uncle, Merlyn Curren; and grandfather, Kenneth Curren.

“ We continue to think of you, Linda and Aunt Elaine. Sasha touched so many people in a loving, positive way with her kind and caring heart. Those are the same wonderful qualities you both possess and we are grateful for your generosity of spirit. May the love Sasha gave to others come back to you as support and comfort. Donna

“ I was so sad to hear Sasha had passed. She was the first online friend I made who loved Downton Abbey as much as I did. She brought so much joy with her talent for the written word and I loved the way she shared her thoughts and dreams. Fly high sweet Sasha. I will miss you every day. Tina

“ I met Sasha online 2014 because we both loved Downton Abbey so much. She tried to comfort me when I lost my cat Lucy and she also encouraged me with my newest project. It's not long ago we chatted, she always cheered for me, found kind words, when I lost my mom. I find it hard to believe she is gone .I am gonna miss you, Sasha! You will always have a place in my heart. Please say hi to my mom and Lucy for me. May you rest in peace you beautiful soul . Lots of love, Tascha from Germany.

“Sasha and I met online due to our mutual love of the television show "Downton Abbey". She brought such joy every time we chatted and was one of the pillars that I leaned on when my 38 years old daughter died in 2022. She was a vessel from which the Holy Spirit truly shown. I will miss her so very much until we meet again in Heaven.

“Creativity is the first quality I cherish about my friend "Tracy." We spent hours together acting out the skits she wrote about Noah How-to-Drive and his friends, Ima Gooddriver and Ike N Drive and their antics at the Driver's School. Long before we were of age to get behind the wheel, we were teaching new drivers to respect traffic laws and laughing the whole while. And I have no idea how many Reese's Peanut Butter Cups we ate while watching and rewatching Willy Wonka but it was fun doing it together! Intelligent, spunky, a faithful friend, I cherish the beautiful person who is my friend "Tracy" and I celebrate her homegoing into the arms of Jesus whom she trusted with all her heart. I imagine her imagination gone wild in His embrace and I look forward to laughing with her again in eternity.

May Jesus comfort your hearts, Linda and Elaine! He is near in this tender place!

*Much love,
Bea (Barber) Preston*

“ Linda and Elaine, there are no words to comfort the loss of your child; it's an unimaginable loss. We are holding you close in thoughts and prayers as only God can ease the pain right now. Sasha was such a sweet person, caring for others as she did. I will treasure the precious bunny she knitted for me after my surgery. It holds a special place in my heart. Mike loves the Ghostbuster mug and ghost she thought would be a good reminder for him, and it is. She always left such uplifting messages on Facebook. She will be missed.

“ Dear Linda and family, we are heartbroken to hear of Sasha's passing. She was such a wonderful friend to our girls in high school, driving them to and from school before they had their drivers licenses. She was always so sweet and kind. Praying God's peace and comfort for you and your loved ones.
