“ Scott,

All week I have gone around singing God Bless The USA never as good as you of course. However every time I sang it it makes me think of you. :) WHat I remember most about you is that even though we did not see each other often whenever we did you stopped what you were doing and guinely cared about what I was up to and concerned if I was doing good. Something I will always remember. Miss you for sure.

“ So very sorry to hear you have moved on Scott and yet, the memories that are racing through my mind right now are some of the most crazy and fun memories in my life and for that I am forever grateful our paths crossed many years ago. A true friend you always were regardless of how much time passed in between and with that my friend I wish you were still here to continue to tease and reminisce with each other about the "good old days." Hugs to you Nancy and may God Bless and keep you in his arms as you travel through this new chapter.

“ 62 yrs ago we moved into the house nextdoor. Mama wondered where I disappeared to. Only to be found sitting on your front steps with Scott at my side. Both 2 yrs old... the friendship began. You will be missed. Nancy, may you find sweet, peacefulness in your memories and love.
Our Sympathy to you all.

“ Dad got Scott a Little John Deere Tractor when he was 4 years old. He loved everything with wheels from then on...a boat wheel included! Scott loved the outdoors... planting, grilling steaks 'n' wings, singing, telling jokes, dogs..cats..ducks..chicks 'n' turtles! He brought painted turtles & colored chicks home from Kaughman Werner's in Kearney. Scott made the most gorgeous birdhouses.."Backyard Bistro!" He made me one with a red cardinal. I will think of Scott & Daddy each time a cardinal lands on it. <3 He loved his Uncle Jerry's Mad Dog BBQ. He had it flown in from Atlanta to Kearney several times including his Car Club Event. He spearheaded the "Weesner Reunions" for Mom & participated in the Hodge & Dobberstein Reunions. He loved waterskiing at Johnson Lake. Scott was a wonderful brother. I will miss him everyday! <3
