“ Shannon and I did a lot of stupid things together, which I guess is what adolescence is for. Central Elementary, KJHS, KHS. Johnson Lake, student council, choir, Johnson Lake again. His sense of humor was utterly unique, and his laugh was obnoxious and unforgettable. Every time I see a Chevy Greenbrier (which isn't that often) or a 50-something Cadillac, I think of Shannon. Believe it or not, I was telling my daughter about Stripper and Kai Kai just the other day. God speed, my friend.

“ I have too many to share. We were friends from a young age. Life drifted us back and forth. But I never lost the love for him. He was one of the funniest people I have ever meant. Vulnerable yet strong. His heart was too soft for this Earth. I love you my Brother. God Rest your soul. -Randie May
