“ I remember my Aunt Sharon from childhood as the Aunt that could play the piano, among other things. When I grew up, she formed 1/4 of the quartet of sisters that were a delight to be with. I remember her wry sense of humor and love of her cats. I remember visits to the little house in Culbertson when everyone would visit and the house overflowed. She would play the piano if I pestered her enough.

I am truly saddened and offer my deepest sympathy.

My cousin Sharon and her family were the best and closest relatives we had in Culbertson and it was very special having them there. When you're young you forget to say thank you for all love they give you, but I will say it now: THANK YOU to the Deines! Bonnie, may God be with you and yours, from cousin Susan Butherus Ihrig.
