“ Hello. I do not know your son nor do I know your family. I just wanted you to know that your son looked and sounded like a fine young man, the kind we need a lot more of in our very troubled world. My heart, thoughts and prayers are with you during this time. Rest assured his memories will be with you forever. You will see him daily in all the good things he did and was.

Peace

“ A recent subscriber to the HUB online, I was scanning the obituaries and noticed the name Talon J. Trampe. While I have been gone for too long from Buffalo County to know a 15 year old young man named Talon, I do recognize the Trampe name from ball games years ago. I know Trinity Lutheran Church as well, church home to a cousin.

I cannot begin to imagine the depth of your loss nor begin to enumerate the unknowable ways his death will mark you as a family, in all the years to come. As a pastor, (now retired), I have walked through this Valley of the Shadow of Death a number of times with others; for most, the pain preserves their child's memory and "What if..." remains unanswered.

My grandson will be 13 this coming November 1, All Saints Day. He lives, but come All Saints Day, I will think of Talon from afar, and number him among all the saints eternal.
