Horner Lieske McBride & Kuhl Funeral and Cremation Services is in charge of arrangements.

Teresa was born on April 6, 1965, in Hobart, Oklahoma, to Gregory and Beverly Ann (Hunn) Miller. After the passing of her father when she was young, her family moved to Greensburg, Kansas, where she attended school and later worked alongside her mother at Bev's Pizza and Pasta.

Teresa was united in marriage to Clinton Jones. Together they were blessed with three children: Deanna, Jeremy, and Gregory. Although their marriage later ended, Teresa's devotion to her children never changed.

Later in life, Teresa met Rodney Brozek, and together they welcomed Rodney (Alex) Brozek. Teresa and Rodney shared 27 years together. In 2020, Teresa moved to Lexington, Nebraska, where she lived with her sister, Carol McFadden. This became a new chapter in Teresa's life. She enjoyed working as a housekeeper and caretaker at a care home in Lexington and cherished the opportunity to reconnect with her son Alex and create many new memories with family nearby.

Teresa was preceded in death by her parents, Gregory Miller and Beverly Brown; her sister, Carol McFadden; and her son, Jeremy Jones.

She is survived by her daughter, Deanna Allison of Newport, Washington; sons Rodney Brozek of Kearney and Gregory Jones of Hays, Kansas; grandson Blaize Jones; brother Justin Juel; sister Leah Brown; and many extended family members and friends who loved her.

Teresa found joy in life's simple moments and especially treasured time with family. She loved being a homemaker, cooking for those she loved, listening to music, reading, and making meaningful memories with the people around her. Her grandson, great-nieces and nephews, and the many children in her life brought her immense joy. She will be remembered for her resilience, compassion, and the love she gave so freely.
