“ When we were both working 60 hour weeks, we seldom saw eachother, but would have our own Match of Wits. I would email him a line from a great poet, Keats, Whitman, Elliot.....or, a part of a line from a song, James Taylor, John Oats. He would then promptly send one to me. Hard as we tried to stump one another, he ALWAYS beat me to the answer of what song or poem title. This one's for you my friend...Fire and Rain! Valerie

“ I always said you needed to be a college professor. You were the intellectualizer in our group in earlier years. Always so articulate and poetic. You always gave yourself credit for Doug and I being and together for over 38 years, and rightly so. Without your intervention we never would have met. I love you and will never forget you. May God wrap his loving arms around you, Jan and Hoban.

“ Hey roomie! We had lots of fun together ... including the discussions of you not liking hunting ... and then buying land/duck blind on the river! We had some great times hunting the cunning pheasants and ducks. Never made it on the antelope/deer hunts, but that was by choice! I'll miss our banter to each other regardless of the subject. A true friend for the last 40 years ... From Hastings to Grand Island to Kearney! Peace my friend!
