“ I remember the day the Hanneman family moved directly across the street from us in Riverdale where I grew up. We, as young kids, were so excited to meet Kerry & Carol! I remember Verna & Don were smiling & happy their kids had other kids to play with. Verna was always smiling. She was kind and talkative with a playful heart and always kept a close eye on her children. She liked watching us play hide and seek and even played a few games of it with us. My dad always spoke of her kindly and was blessed to have her as a good friend and neighbor. “I myself will miss you, Verna. I enjoyed our conversations about flowers and Carol whom you are now joined with in heaven.” 🌸 Praying for Don, Kerry, and their family & friends for God’s strength & comfort. ❤️
