“ To all the dear Nuttelman brothers and sisters, God has blessed you richly with a wonderful Christian mother who carried each of you sons, Craig, Randy, and Keith, in her arms to the baptismal font where the Triune God entered into your hearts making you His temple. No greater work can parents do than to teach their children about their Savior, Jesus Christ. She is now in heaven beholding her Savior face to face. What a blessing! As St. Paul writes, ". . . to die is gain." She is now home with her Savior and all the saints who have gone before. Be thou faithful unto death and you will be reunited with her and all the saints. God has blessed you richly through your loving parents and He will continue to bless you through His Word and Sacraments. We are sorry we cannot be with you but be assured we will have you in our prayers. God bless you all, Pastor, Sharon, and Caleb
