“ You were one of a kind Bill, an independent man with a zest for life and friends around every corner. I am going to miss you at Buddy Bowling, dances, People First meetings & celebrations, as wells as here, there, and everywhere. You lived life to the fullest and proved disability is no barrier to happiness. Fly High my friend.

It has been several years since I have had the pleasure of spending time with Bill, but when I knew him he was always on the go and was never a person to just sit around bored, He enjoyed life and had many friends. Bill was the genuine article -- the guy people liked to be around and could count on to be a kind and true friend. I can't think of a better way to be remembered.
