“ To the Family of Bill Rae

I am sorry to hear of Bill's passing. He will be remembered as a great friend. I remember the many lunches we has at the Cellar Lounge and the fact many questioned our friendship due to our constant arguing. Well I suppose we both liked to argue just a "little". I also remember it was Bill I turned to the day my Father passed and the support and comfort he gave me that day. For that I am internally grateful.

Sincerely,

Frank "The Bank" Medo

“ Bill was generous to our family. He enjoyed his business, but his main love and concern was for his children and their families. Over the years he treated his first cousin, Lynn, as a brother. He will be greatly missed. Our thoughts and prayers are with the family.

“ *I remember our two trips together. Waterloo to see the Globetrotters and California for the heck of it. That two week trip to CA September of 1957 is the reason I did not graduate with the Class of 58.
Enjoyed them both.*
