“ Paul and Family. I am so sorry for your loss. I worked for Paul and Jody at the auction house many years ago. I always loved that they worked and got a long so well together. It always made me smile. My mom was a close friend with Jody, and I am so glad she had such a good friend in Jody. It always made me smile when my mom said she was visiting Jody or Jody just dropped by to talk.

“ Paul and family, I was so saddened to hear of this news. Jodi, what a great gal she was. I can hear her laugh, and always on the go. Many great memories, popping in and out of the store, to see mom and you two. Years of laughter and alot of work. God Bless all of you !!! Jodi will sadly missed. Cindy C. I bet mom and Jodi are having a laugh as I write this.

“ Paul & Linda, so sorry for your loss. My sisters and I were reminiscing about you guys. I wanted to share with you a memory about your mom,
I remember being the youngest person allowed to get their own bidding card and allowed to do my own bidding because she new me and dad.

Also remember delivering the newspaper paper to you and getting into trouble for walking across the wet concrete for their new furniture shop! Jodi was so patient with me and my parents. So many memories of you guys. Love, prayers and peace too you guys.
